

Why You Should Join NAUPA

By joining the National Association of Unclaimed Property Administrators (NAUPA), you'll be connected with state personnel charged with the responsibilities of unclaimed property administration and compliance in the US and internationally.

An affiliate of the National Association of State Treasurers (NAST), NAUPA provides a forum for discussions regarding interstate cooperation, education, training, uniform laws, reporting requirements, and increasing the public's awareness of the role the states play in protecting and returning unclaimed property to the rightful owners.

Through annual conferences, webinars, network committees, topical forums and fraud alerts, and other online resources, NAUPA provides a forum for meaningful and collaborative exchanges. Membership in the Network is inclusive of all staff who work in a dues-paying office.

Discounted registration rates for all NAST Conferences

- LEGISLATIVE CONFERENCE
- TREASURY MANAGEMENT TRAINING SYMPOSIUM
- ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Benefits of Joining NAUPA

Advocacy and Awareness

- Gain access to proprietary policy news from NAST's Washington-based advocacy firm Williams & Jensen.
- Participate in the development of legislative and regulatory policy aimed at improving Unclaimed Property administration and compliance.
- Receive tools to advocate on key policy issues (e.g., proposed legislation to promote state unclaimed property management.)

Communications

- Receive access to listservs and forums to share best practices with and ask for input from your colleagues in all NAST Committees and Networks.
- Gain exclusive access to premium content, such as the NAST member directory, advocacy resources, exclusive member communications, and other important materials.
- Receive the NAST Newsletter; the online newsletter will keep you up to date on news from public finance officials at the national and state levels.
- Submit an article for the weekly Thoughtful Leaders blog.
