

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF UNCLAIMED PROPERTY ADMINISTRATORS

A Network of the National Association of State Treasurers

As the foremost authority in unclaimed property, NAUPA helps provide the necessary leadership, consumer protection, and support—facilitating collaboration among government administrators—to promote the success of this beneficial program returning billions in unclaimed property to its owners each year.

Fiscal Year 2023 States Returned

$5,404,074,038⁴⁰

(July 1, 2022 - June 30, 2023) | 49 States and DC Reporting

Unclaimed property programs work together with the public and private sector to follow the clues to verify ownership and reunite property. In a record setting year, states returned over $5 billion to its rightful owner! Help us close the case of the missing money. Learn more at unclaimed.org and start your search at missingmoney.com.

Cash Hunter, PI

Unclaimed or “abandoned” property refers to property or accounts within financial institutions or companies—in which there has been no activity generated (or contact with the owner) regarding the property for one year or a longer period.

Learn more at unclaimed.org. Start your search at missingmoney.com