

Drafted State Proclamation

WHEREAS, the State of X has over XX million in unclaimed property, including uncashed checks, insurance proceeds, and other financial assets that are considered lost or abandoned when an owner cannot be located after a specific period of time; and

WHEREAS, for over X decades, the State of X has received millions of dollars annually turned over by entities who cannot locate the owners and has made a commitment to reuniting these financial assets to their rightful owners; and

WHEREAS, currently, the State of X holds over X million accounts to be returned to X residents; and

WHEREAS, each year, claims paid represent over XX percent of what the State of X receives in that year / the State of X returns over $X dollars to its rightful owner; and

WHEREAS, to find out if you have unclaimed property listed under your name, please visit the State's Unclaimed Property website at XX and file your claim using this free service;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that I, XX, Governor of the State of X, do hereby proclaim February 1st, 2023, as

Unclaimed Property Day

Throughout the State of X, and I urge citizens to utilize this free service and share this information with other X residents.